

COMFORTING SHEPHERD

PRAYERS OF COMFORT

by Tommy & Mari Anne Andersen

TRACK 1

SHEPHERD'S CHILD

Father, you are my Shepherd and I am your child. My Mighty Creator – My God – My Elohim. You are the Creator of all things, who existed before time began.

Elohim, My Mighty Creator, who began it all, creating all of the heavens and all of the earth – separating the light from dark, night from day, water from dry land.

You are the Ancient of Days full of sovereignty and authority, filled with beauty and purity.

Un-created Creator God, You spoke the galaxies into existence, You commanded time to start. Mighty One, You made everything out of nothing, brought forth order out of chaos, You laid the foundations of the earth, and the heavens are the works of Your hands. You made all things beautiful and called it all good. You are perfect in all Your ways, nothing could be added to, or subtracted from your marvelous works.

You are the everlasting God, You will not grow weary or tired. You my God, gives strength to the weary of heart and You my God increase the power of the weak. You will strengthen and uphold me with Your righteousness and with Your right hand. You will never leave me nor will you ever forsake me.

You are my Father God who “sees me” and knows all about me. You know what my needs are – Your eyes are on the sparrow – Lord – you look down from the heavens; and You see all mankind – Your eyes are upon all who fear You and whose hope is in Your love that is steadfast to lead, to guide and to deliver. You are faithful in hearing the cries of my heart the moans of my prayers.

Come my Shepherd meet and attend to all my needs. Shepherd of my soul save me from the cares and the foes of this world.

My God – My Mighty Creator, My Shepherd – You know the places I have been wandering around seeking a place of rest, seeking a place of peace, seeking a place of safety – I have gone astray, I am lost – come and find me – come and rescue me – I am ready to be found by you. The places that seem foreign and uncertain – the places that seem out of my control – the places of loneliness – the places of foolishness – come Shepherd of my soul come and rescue me.

Shepherd of my Soul sustain me, guide me, lead me, on to your highway of holiness – lead me into the safety of Your green pastures. And there provide for me – as my shepherd, care for me, watch over me, nourish my soul, my body, my mind and feed my spirit – like a newborn infant I long for the pure spiritual milk that will mature me in my salvation .

Shepherd of my soul usher in Your loving presence so I can have all my needs met – in You I will not lack anything – for You are with me to carefully protect and keep watch over me, you will protect me in the dark times and as You lead me I will not fear – for you will show me the way.

Shepherd of my soul – rescue me from all my fears – from the uncertainties – come and keep watch Shepherd of my soul – safeguard the places of my heart and provide security, serenity and tranquility deep in my soul – I long for the meadows of safety, take hold of me and keep me in Your pastures, let me know Your comfort – let me know Your Peace.

Defend me from the enemies that wait to steal my peace, to destroy my trust, and to remove me from this place of rest and security in You.

Shepherd of my soul You have made provision to make me whole and not be in need or want – You are my provider who supplies liberally and fully my every need according to Your riches in glory. Be my Shepherd who leads me into all grace, all mercy, and all favor – thru Your abundance of love and kindness in all circumstances aiding and supporting me in making a way into Your sanctuary of safety – Your sweet haven of hope.

Shepherd of my soul – I give you my selfish behaviors, my wrong motives, my bad choices and my insecurities – places I went astray and turned to my own way – forgive me – I change my direction – I chose to follow You – Shepherd come and direct my steps into your paths everlasting.

Come to be my defense – be my immunity – You are my all in all – All consuming are You – Shepherd of my soul – I lack for nothing – for You are my Shepherd. I fear no evil. You love me – You will rescue me and You will protect me – My Shepherd you will watch over me and answer me in my times of trouble and deliver me and honor me in the safety of Your refuge.

Shepherd of my soul turn to me and have mercy on me, now and forever – for You always care for those who love Your name – I love your name – Elohim – my Mighty Creator – my Shepherd.
