PRAYERS OF COMFORT

TRACK 6

GOODNESS OVERTAKES ME

My Shepherd

You anoint my head with oil, the oil of Your gladness. Holy Spirit you are being poured upon me right now, like the oil poured over Aaron's head, I feel it upon me, from the top of my head it is running down, softening my face, opening my senses, dripping onto my shoulders and arms, strengthening them. My body and soul is refreshed, renewed and restored by the warm fragrant oils you smear on me, my Heavenly Shepherd, your comforting touch is transforming me, through and through, even my feet are made beautiful as they now carry the readiness of the good news.

Oh - My Shepherd

I daily feel Your anointing, I am marked with your seal, I am claimed by You, I am chosen by You, You took hold of me, paid for me, branded me, and I am Yours, Yours to love, and to cherish.

You richly supply copious amounts of affection, this satisfies my deepest need, my mind and heart are filled with contentment and peace that surpasses all understanding. Your abundant lifestyle is now my way of living, my cup is running over with Your goodness and mercy, out of my heart flow rivers of living water- You bestow favor and honor upon me, You withhold nothing from me - you make it easy for me to trust You, and to give You my whole heart.

I no longer lean on my own understanding, I acknowledge You as my Shepherd, I fully trust you to direct my paths, to keep me safe, and Your provision is more than enough; You provide double of what I need.

Gladness Fills My Heart,

I am resting in your arms, and in your abundant provision. I am learning to live my life from this place of rest and abundance.

Shalom is my new lifestyle, I found harmony and contentment in you, it has changed my emotional chemistry, the way I think and feel about everything and everyone has changed, as I see people and circumstances from your perspective, I see them through your eyes and feel with Your heart.

Even the way I see myself and feel about myself has changed. My past no longer define me, You define me. I now believe what You say about me, Your truth now describe exactly who I am. My new identity is rooted and grounded in Your word and Your grace.

I abide in Your love, and Your love abide in me.

Father God

You are at home in me, and I am at home in You

I know I am the apple of your eye
I feel my worth, worth beyond description
I really know that I am irreplaceable

No one can take my place

I am a favorite legitimate child. I am co-heir with my big brother Jesus - and we will inherit the Kingdom of God, the Kingdom of Heaven together.

My Shepherd

My cup is overflowing with You and the continual presence of Your love - that love that I find so comfortable, and so at home with. The light of Your face has shone upon me - You have filled my heart with the greatest joy - My soul is satisfied as with the richest of foods; with sincere lips my mouth praises You. I am full of assurance and confidence that all my days are ordained for me, and was written in Your book even before time began. You are familiar with all my ways and You know me completely - Wonderful are all your works, and my inner-soul knows this so well. You satisfy my desires with good things, and you crown me with beauty and compassion.

Father,

You're true motivation towards me is, and always will be; LOVE.

This love has been shed abroad in my heart, and I know it, I abide in it, and it abides in me.

I hear Your voice Good Shepherd, it feels familiar and reassuring to me, you will never leave me, nor forsake me, nothing or no one can take me out of your hand, I am secure.

I lie down and sleep in peace for I know YOU, and YOU alone make me dwell in safety.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, every day Your goodness and mercy pursues me until it overtakes me, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
